

Come All Ye Fair and Tender Ladies

Traditional

ii V I
Come all ye fair and tender ladies
ii V vi
Take warning how you court your men
V I
They're like a star on a summer morning
ii V vi
They first appear and then they're gone

They'll tell to you some loving story
Then they'll make you think that they love you well
And away they'll go to court some other
And leave you there in grief to dwell

I wish I was on some tall mountain
Where the ivy rocks are black as ink
I'd write a letter to my false true lover
Whose cheeks are like the morning pink

Oh love is handsome, love is charming
And love is pretty while it's new
But love grows cold as love grows old
And fades away like the morning dew
